VENUE INFORMATION

REGATTA OFFICE

[Regatta Office and Race Management]

The championship will be supported by a dedicated race management operation, including experienced international officials, technical personnel and administrative staff.

[Race management team]

The proposed team will include:

- One International Race Officer with experience managing major Snipe Class events, to be appointed in January 2028.
- Five additional race management staff available throughout the regatta.
- Dedicated registration and event administration staff.
- A professional on-water safety and rescue team.
- At least three International Jury members will be appointed for the championship.
- One International Measurer experienced in major Snipe Class events, supported by two additional staff members.

[Race management technology]

Race management and results will be supported by the Vakaros electronic race management system. The Organizing Authority will make Vakaros equipment available for rental to competitors, subject to the final equipment arrangements.

Race management information and results will also be made available through a dedicated event application.

[Office and operational facilities]

Four dedicated rooms will be made available for championship operations, with approximate areas of:

- 12 m² — Press and media operations.
- 14 m² — Protest and jury operations.
- 25 m² — Race administration and registration.
- 26 m² — Race Committee.

The final allocation of rooms will be coordinated with SCIRA and the appointed officials.

[On-water fleet]

The Organizing Authority will allocate 10 boats and one larger support vessel to championship operations.

These resources will support race management, safety, technical operations and general event logistics.

OTHER ACCOMODATION

The Yacht Clube da Bahia is located in a central and prestigious area of Salvador, close to restaurants, commercial services and tourist attractions.

Numerous accommodation options are available in the Barra district, including hotels, guesthouses and short-term rental properties within walking distance of the Yacht Clube da Bahia.

The following two hotels alone offer a combined capacity of more than 600 beds:

- Grande Hotel da Barra: 242 beds, approximately a 4-minute walk from the club.
- Rede Andrade Barra Hotel: 360 beds, approximately a 5-minute walk from the club.

The concentration of accommodation options within walking distance will allow many competitors, coaches and officials to stay close to the venue, reducing daily transportation requirements and simplifying event logistics.

The Organizing Authority will provide accommodation information and recommendations to participating teams during the registration and preparation process.
