Rondeau Gracieuse

Kevin Kaisershot

THE WORK: As the third movement of Suite Historique, this versatile work is adaptable to many combinations of instruments. It is dance-like in character with a slight sense of urgency. It is an excellent tool for teaching the rondo form as this piece follows an A, A1, B, A2, C, A3 pattern. Each time the A section appears, it is slightly different than before.

PERFORMANCE TIPS: Light tonguing should be emphasized so as not to allow the tempo to become heavy and burdensome. Each time the A section returns the first part shoulders the responsibility for providing the "difference" from the previous hearing. Do not allow the final presentation of the A section to become "frantic" and hurried. Relax as you breathe and allow the notes to flow naturally. Performers should know how each part fits and when to play the supportive role versus the lead. Dynamics are written and designed to help show where these occasions occur.

This work is part of a growing series of original pieces by this talented composer. Many of these titles are already found on contest lists throughout the country.

These like-instrument ensemble works are designed to be performed by junior high and high school level musicians. They are ideal for use in festivals and competitions as well as in concerts, church services and other special events. All pieces are melodically and rhythmically creative with all parts being interesting and suitable in difficulty (Easy, Medium, Medium)

Besides their use as like-instrument pieces, they are all interchangeable and will work with any combination of the Brass or Woodwind instruments (Flute, Clarinet, Saxophone, Horn, Trumpet, Trombone and Tub). This means that any non-standard combinations of instruments will have access to these terrific works.

Other titles in this series:

Elegy, Scherzo Diabolique, Novelette, Danse a la Gigue, Modern Day Madrigal, Rondeau Gracieuse, Moments Majestique and Musical Tag.
