Awaken (Aspects Movement 1)

By Randall D. Standridge

Program Notes

Awaken is the first movement of Aspects, a multi-movement work commissioned by the American School Band Directors Association Education Foundation. The piece is dedicated to Ross Leeper (IA), a founding member of the ASBDA Education Foundation and a past president of the organization. This suite was written to reflect on Ross's many musical interests as a director, as well as different aspects of his personality and passion for the concert band tradition.

Ross loved all kinds of music. He even had a habit of listening to professional recordings in the evenings—after a full day of rehearsing and teaching—so he could “reset” his ears and reconnect with how music should sound. His musical tastes were wide-ranging, and each movement of Aspects reflects on this part of his personality. Originally titled “The Director,” this first movement is my tribute to the music educator side of him.

Drawing inspiration from the great British concert band tradition, Awaken opens with a brass fanfare that is both majestic and reverent. The moderate 3/4 tempo gives the music a sense of formality and grace, while woodwind flourishes and colorful textures add energy and uplift. You'll hear quotes and influences woven throughout—from the Chaconne movement of Holst's First Suite for Military Band to hints of Vaughan Williams' Flourish for Wind Band—all blended with my own compositional voice and modern sensibilities.

While Awaken serves as the introduction to the larger Aspects suite, it also stands on its own as a Grade 3 work—ideal as an opening statement for concerts, festivals, or any performance that calls for something noble and timeless.

Ross's legacy lives on through the music he loved, the students he inspired, and the community he helped shape. I hope this piece honors that legacy and awakens something meaningful in all who hear or perform it.

Rehearsal suggestions

- The tempo of this work is critical to its character. Please note and honor the intended tempos.
- Dynamics should be noticeable and taken to extremes.
- Percussion should be on the higher end of dynamic balance. Do not hide them.
