Alleluia from Exultate Jubilate K. 165

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
Arranged by David Marlatt

This is one of the most popular soprano arias ever written. With its flowing scale passages and brilliant upper register work, it makes a great technical feature! Exultate Jubilate, a motet for soprano and orchestra, was a three-movement work with this famous Alleluia as the grand finale.

The motet as a whole is rarely performed in its entirety but this Alleluia is still often performed.
