About the composer

Trestin Durant (b. 2006) is a young composer and musician from Lake Butler, Florida. Currently, he is a senior at Union County High School. As a young multi-instrumentalist, he is exploring composition in several genres including jazz, concert, marching, small ensemble and orchestra. Trestin has been writing music since the 8th grade. He often writes music for his high school band to perform. His goal for composing is to write fun but challenging music for musicians of all ages.

La Fiesta Brava

La Fiesta Brava is a Spanish march that tells the story of a matador preparing for corridas de toros. The piece begins with the young matador in his teen years, fighting his first bull. As the piece continues, the young matador becomes more experienced, graceful and confident. La Fiesta Brava is an intricate march that gives every instrument an important section from light flourishes in the woodwinds to powerful yet warm chords in the brass, along with thundering rhythms in the percussion. The piece also features an oboe solo that can be covered by clarinet if the oboe is absent in the ensemble. La Fiesta Brava, though challenging, can be a fun piece for both the performers and audience.
