The Garnet and Gold A Concert March

Donald Coakley

From 1962 through 1967, I was privileged to be the Director of Bands at Cardinal Dougherty High School, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. It was a wonderful school, and impacted my life in many ways. While the dedication of this work is quite specific, in another sense, the composition of the march was a statement of gratitude to a school that had enriched my life so greatly. Many of the members of the Cardinal Dougherty High School Alumni Band are former students from my years at the school. Many are close friends. All are respected, and admired, on my part. This march is dedicated, with great affection, to the members of the Alumni Band.

The trio of the march is based on the Cardinal Dougherty High School Alma Mater. It was written by Sister M. Giovanni, a member of the faculty. I would like to thank Louis Woodruff, a graduate of Cardinal Dougherty High School, and a former Director of Bands at the school, for the use of his harmonization of the Alma Mater.

Donald Coakley studied at the Crane School of Music at the State University of New York in Potsdam, New York, the School of Music at Temple University and the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music. While studying at the Conservatory, he was a composition student of Vincent Persichetti and studied trombone with Henry Charles Smith, principal trombone of the Philadelphia Orchestra. Following graduate school, he taught at Cardinal Dougherty High School in Philadelphia, and also served as conductor of the Camden Choral Arts Society in Camden, New Jersey. After a successful tenure at Cardinal Dougherty, Coakley joined the faculty of the School of Music at Temple University.

In the early 1970s, Coakley was invited to join the Music Department of the Scarborough School System, becoming Assistant Coordinator of Music shortly thereafter. As such, he was responsible for the elementary instrumental music program in Scarborough. He also headed the instrumental wing at the Scarborough Music Camps, and founded the Scarborough Schools Symphony Orchestra as well as overseeing four other All-City instrumental ensembles.

Donald Coakley has written successfully for school, university and professional groups. He is a member of the Canadian League of Composers and an Associate Composer with the Canadian Music Centre. In 1977, Coakley received the Distinguished Service to Education Award from the State University of New York; and in 1995 he received the Anson Taylor Award for excellence in teaching from the Scarborough Board of Education.
