

The High School Cadets

John Philip Sousa
Arranged by John Jay Hilfiger

In late nineteenth-century America, school drill teams were very popular. John Philip Sousa admired the team at Washington (D.C.) High School and composed the march, The High School Cadets, dedicated to "the teachers and pupils" of this school. The piece was published in 1890 and has become one of Sousa's more popular marches.

In this version for brass quartet, the piece will add welcome variety to recital programs and also make a stirring march possible on occasions where no concert band/military band is available.
