Andrew Robertson Mackereth

Andrew Mackereth was born in Gateshead, in the North-East of England in 1965. A fourth generation Salvationist, he first attended a meeting aged barely a week old. The son of officer parents, he has lived in many places including 4 years in Zambia and nine years in Kingston-upon-Hull. It was here that he began his earliest musical training.

In 1982, he returned to his native North-East to enrol on the Certificate in Brass Band Studies Course at Newcastle College of Arts & Technology, studying trombone, euphonium and tuba. In 1984, Andrew gained a place at the Birmingham School of Music to study Trombone and Composition, later studying Percussion and Conducting also. In his fourth year, he won the Bernhard Brown Memorial Composition Prize. At the completion of his studies, he entered the teaching profession first in Nuneaton before moving to Birmingham to become Head of Music in the largest UK school.

His first publication was the song “Ring the Bells of Heaven” in 1987, but it was 1996 before his first piece for brass band entered the repertoire. To date, more than 250 of his compositions; religious and secular are in print; many frequently feature on the concert programmes of Salvation Army Bands. In November of 2008 he was honoured by the New York Staff Band with a concert of his music entitled Profile 30. Andrew has led music programmes in Argentina, America, Germany and Netherlands and guest conducts brass bands in Germany and Sweden.

Numerous commissions include STANDARD BEARERS for the International Staff Band of The Salvation Army, HYMNUS for Wilhelmina Easterein (Netherlands) and EXALTATION for the Melbourne Staff Band. Other notable collaborations include North York Temple Band, Canadian Staff Band, Amsterdam Staff Band and Songsters. His bass trombone solo: Swing Low has been recorded by the renowned Bass Trombonist: Douglas Yeo and Tubist: Leslie Neish.

In addition to numerous guest conducting appearances, Andrew is the Bandmaster of the Nuneaton Salvation Army Band, The Salvation Army Symphonic Wind Ensemble and The Glebe Symphonic Wind Orchestra.

Amazing Grace

Trombone Solo & Brass Band

Andrew Robertson Mackereth
1983

This is one of my earliest arrangements and unsurprisingly perhaps, my second solo for my own instrument: the trombone. At the time of writing, I was enjoying some modest success writing for a 10-piece brass ensemble and getting performances. In time, this led to my first commercial recording – on cassette tape!

My motives were shallow, I wanted to feature as a soloist with their group but it was not to be. In the years that followed however, I was able to feature as soloist and arranger with other bands and ensembles.

The setting itself is pretty straightforward but should give the soloist plenty of scope for expression and interpretation.

Performance Note:

At the final chord, provision is made for a little improvisation. This is not obligatory, or limited to the few notes I have included. My own improvisation in performance was often more akin to a mini cadenza (making the band wait until I'd finished having fun!)
