String Orchestra / Streichorchester / Orchestre à cordes

English: Apart from the traditional strings, these publications contain extra parts for Violin III, Cello II, optional piano or keyboard, and optional percussion.

Violin III replaces or reinforces the violas. If there are enough violas present, this part should be omitted. When the viola part goes too low, an alternative for Violin III is indicated in small notes.

Cello II doubles the contrabass; the score also shows alternative small notes. However we recommend that 1-2 cellists take this part if possible even when a contrabass is present, as this will round out the sound of the bass line.

In some pieces, an optional piano / keyboard part is provided. In classical pieces, this should only be used if really necessary, to strengthen a small or very inexperienced ensemble. In baroque pieces it may be given to an organ. In light music, the keyboard part adds to the rhythmic vitality and its use is recommended.

The percussion, although always optional, will always add enormously to the rhythmic drive of the Latin and jazz pieces particularly. Even if the orchestra does not have a full-time percussionist, perhaps one of the violinists could be persuaded to try his hand at the bongos!

All chords should be divided unless the specific indication non div. is used.

Deutsch: Ausser den gewöhnlichen Streichern, enthalten diese Ausgaben auch zusätzliche Stimmen für Violine III, Cello II, fakultatives Klavier / Keyboard und fakultatives Schlagzeug.

Violine III verstärkt oder ersetzt die Bratschen. Falls letztere in genügender Anzahl vorhanden sind, fällt diese Stimme weg. Wo die Stimme zu tief liegt, stehen Kleingedruckte Noten für die Violine III.

Cello II ersetzt den Kontrabass; auch hier sind die nötigen Anpassungen durch kleinere Noten angegeben. Wir empfehlen jedoch, dass 1-2 Cellisten diese Stimme womöglich übernehmen, auch wenn ein Kontrabass mitspielt, da dadurch einen runderen Bassklang erreicht wird.

Bei einigen Stücken wird eine Klavier- oder Keyboardstimme geliefert. In klassischen Stücken, sollte diese Stimme nur verwendet werden, wenn dies unentbehrlich erscheint, um ein Schwachbesetztes oder sehr unerfahrenes Ensemble zu verstärken. In Barockstücken kann eine Orgel eingesetzt werden. Bei der Unterhaltungsmusik hingegen, kann das Keyboard eine durchaus positive Wirkung auf die Gesamtrhythmik ausüben, so dass seine Anwendung empfohlen wird.

Das Schlagzeug, obwohl stets fakultativ, ist immer ein wichtiges Hilfsmittel, um den Rhythmus, besonders bei den Lateinamerikanischen und Jazzstücken, lebendig zu gestalten. Auch wenn das Orchester über keinen ständigen Schlagzeuger verfügt, kann man vielleicht einen Geiger überreden, sich an die Bongos heranzuwagen!

Français: A part l'instrumentation traditionnelle, ces publications contiennent des parties pour violon III, violoncelle II, piano / clavier facultatif et percussion facultative.

Le violon III renforce ou remplace les altos. Si l'ensemble compte un nombre suffisant de ces derniers, cette partie devient superflue. Dans les passages où la partie d'alto descend trop bas, de petites notes indiquent la partie remplaçante pour les violons.

Le violoncelle II remplace la contrebasse; de nouveau, de petites notes indiquent celles qui devraient être octaviées. Nous recommandons pourtant qu'un ou deux violoncellistes prennent cette partie si possible, même quand une contrebasse est présente, car ceci enrichira la sonorité de la basse.

Pour quelques pièces, une partie de piano / clavier est fournie. Dans les morceaux classiques, celle-ci devrait seulement être utilisée si elle paraît vraiment indispensable, pour renforcer un ensemble trop maigre ou très peu expérimenté. Lors des compositions baroques, un orgue peut remplacer le piano. Par contre, dans la musique de variété, l'emploi du clavier apporte un élan rythmique tout à fait positif.

La percussion, quoique toujours facultative, est hautement recommandée dans la musique latine ou jazz. Si l'ensemble ne comporte pas de percussionniste permanent, on pourrait éventuellement persuader à un violoniste de s'essayer aux bongos!

Tous les accords devraient être divisés, sauf en présence de l'indication spécifique non div.
