Laudamus Te from Gloria

Antonio Vivaldi
Arranged by David Marlatt

Antonio Vivaldi (1678-1741) wrote his Gloria RV 589 around 1713 for the chorus and orchestra of an all-girls orphanage in Venice. The girls received a thorough musical training there and the result was that the fame of the orchestra spread far beyond the confines of Venice.

The Laudamus te was originally for two sopranos and strings. The string parts have been reduced and distributed between the horn, trombone and tuba while the duet lines are in the trumpets.
