

The Gods of Egypt

Ryan Meeboer

Gods of Egypt is a piece composed with the flare of music of the Middle East. A strong opening using a traditional Middle Eastern scale and counter melody immediately create the feel for this piece. The introduction should be played with strength, but also controlled to leave a good first impression on the listener.

Dynamics play a key role throughout the entirety of the piece, as it often embellishes the musical reflection of the ambiance and mystery of Egypt.

Throughout the piece, there are frequent examples of call and response, with a Middle Eastern groove to support. Make sure the melodic parts in these sections are balanced. The middle, lyrical section is to be played as smooth as possible.

Ryan Meeboer is a music educator, who obtained his degree through the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education at the University of Toronto. As a composer, he has written and arranged many pieces for concert band, jazz band, and small ensembles. Focusing on music education and theory (including composition and orchestration), he attended McMaster University to achieve his honours degree in music. Ryan is currently a teacher for the Halton District School Board in Ontario, where he continues to compose and arrange.
