About the cover: Debbie "Mama" Criswell is a self-taught artist, currently living in Clinton, Tennessee. She is the single mother of two girls and a boy, and has been a professional artist since 2003. She was inspired by the rolling hills, tall farm houses, and Amish families she observed while living in a small Missouri town. Debbie is primarily known for the primitive folk style of her paintings, but also dabbles in abstracts. Her works have been sold throughout the world, and are currently available on eBay and in galleries throughout the United States.

The piano accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a simple bass line in the left hand. The vocal line begins with a rest for four measures, then enters with the lyrics 'The wa-ter is'. At measure 5, the vocal line has a long note for 'wide,' followed by a melodic phrase for 'I can-not cross o'er.' and another phrase for 'But nei-ther have'. At measure 9, the vocal line has a long note for 'I', followed by 'the wings to' and 'fly.' and finally 'Build me a'. The piano accompaniment continues throughout, providing a harmonic and rhythmic foundation for the vocal melody.
