

Home of the Beaver Land of the Silver Birch

Canadian Folk Song
Arranged by David Marlatt

This traditional Canadian folk song has been sung around campfires and while paddling canoes for decades and continues to be popular with Boy and Girl Scouts in both Canada and the United States. The beautiful lyrics, by E. Pauline Johnson, paint a picture of her woodland aboriginal home in Six Nations, Ontario.

Land of the silver birch
Home of the beaver
Where still the mighty moose
Wanders at will

Refrain:
Blue lake and rocky shore
I will return once more
Boom diddy-ah da, boom diddy-ah da, boom diddy-ah da, eaa-aaa-aaa

High on a rocky ledge
I'll build my wigwam
Close to the water's edge
Silent and still

PREVIEW ONLY

Refrain:
My heart grows sick for thee
Here in the low lands
I will return to thee
Hills of the north

Refrain

This arrangement starts off hauntingly. Even though almost all parts are playing, this cannot be too loud - set the stage for the horn melody at 9.

At 29 a countermelody in Trumpet 1 is introduced over the melody in the Horn and Trumpet 2.

After the fermata at 42, things change dramatically! The style and feel is much more energetic. Keep all quarters notes short and driving forward. The melody enters at 49 and must be long and sustained - a huge contrast to the short, punctuated notes under it.

59 is a short and accented unison moment before the dynamic drops again and builds to powerful major chord at 68.

This folk song arrangement is part of a collection for young musicians celebrating Canada's 150th anniversary since joining Confederation.
