

The Uprising

David Marlatt

The Uprising is a bold and daring work portraying a group challenging the people in power. This has been staged in 6 sections: The Current Regime is noble and confident in character - perhaps too confident. Next is The Planning - the rebel forces begin planning quietly but with purpose and drive. This builds as The Forces Gather - louder, stronger and passionate about their beliefs. This inevitably leads to Battle! where the forces collide in combat. Short aggressive bursts of sound lead to Victory is Ours where a new order takes their place in charge. Celebration begins and builds to a joyous conclusion.

Always watch for, and emphasize, accents throughout this piece. Sometimes 4/4 bars have 3+3+2 8th note feel which should be exaggerated for maximum effect. These accents are loud off the top but are sometimes quieter, like at 27. Make all accents jump out for a fun rhythmic feel.

At 35 make the difference between the short, accented lines and the smooth, slurred ones. Watch for "play 2nd time only" - the forces are gathering on the repeat.

Battle! must have short and aggressive accents to make this part dramatic and exciting.

Be sure to really get quiet on the fp at 57. Anyone with long notes should get out of the way to allow other musical lines to be heard - don't just play loud. Loud playing IS exciting but careful attention to accents, short notes and dynamic contrast make it even more exciting and interesting for the audience.
