Foreword

Simplified Works for Quiet Moments

Soft Sounds at the Piano has been carefully curated to capture the soothing magic of quiet moments in easily accessible piano pieces. The works are simplified and reduced to their musical essence, allowing you to dive straight into the melodies without much practice and enjoy the gentle poetry of these compositions at the piano.

This collection is designed for beginners as well as pianists with a few years of experience. In this edition, you'll find timeless pieces such as the Prelude in C Major, BWV 846a by Johann Sebastian Bach, whose flowing arpeggios radiate meditative calm. For moments of reverie, Erik Satie's Gymnopédie No. 1 invites you with its minimalist elegance. Für Elise, WoO 59 by Ludwig van Beethoven brings the world-famous motif of this piece effortlessly to your fingertips—a motif that warms the heart and, with its expressive repetitions, can take on a meditative character. Clair de lune by Claude Debussy captures the poetic atmosphere of moonlight, while Edvard Grieg's Watchman's Song soothes the soul with its delicate expressiveness.

These works embody the essence of quiet, contemplative moments and are perfect for trying out calming melodies on the piano without much practice. Moreover, you can quickly assemble a program from these pieces for relaxed evenings or intimate performances for family and friends. This collection will bring you joy through its simplicity and ease, helping you effortlessly immerse yourself in the works. It might even inspire you to explore the original compositions, which are also available in the Classicato series. Let this edition inspire you to express the gentleness and poetry of quiet moments through your piano playing. May the music accompany and enrich you in your peaceful hours.
