COLORFUL SUNRISE

Colorful Sunrise was written for a commissioning project for the Rock Canyon Area Orchestra program, Highlands Ranch, Colorado.

The concept of this piece is to capture the nature of Colorado, imagining the changing faces of the mountains. At sunrise, we may see many different colors and atmospheres. Also, we may see the different faces in each season. Each part has a horizontal melody going on and matches to the other parts. It would be good if the players could hear the harmonies’ resonance while playing the music.
