

Sailor's Delight

Frank McKinney
Arranged by David Marlatt

Sailor's Delight invites you to set sail from the marina and bounce across the waves with the wind in your hair. Drift into a hidden cove along the meandering shoreline. Dream of passing clouds and seagulls, then have fun on your adventurous voyage back to the marina. This will be a delight for your band to play!

Follow the dynamic and articulation markings to create style and contrasts. The first theme is stated by the flugel beginning at measure 11. At measure 27 a second theme is presented as the “hi-hat motorboat” remains just loud enough to maintain the tempo. A familiar sailor man motif occurs at measure 31, along with the occasional “horn-pipe” here and there. As a new melody arrives at measure 52, keep the trio quiet but expressive, with seemingly no meter for a few bars. The piece will then follow arch form past a few surprises to the sailor man conclusion.
