

Swingin' Caravan

Composed by Amy Webb

“Swingin' Caravan” is a light-hearted feature that showcases your percussion and alto saxophone sections. This piece is great for working on articulation (namely tenuto, staccato, slurs and tonguing) and also playing eighth notes in the above-mentioned swing style. Because the snare part is written for the rim, it feels as if perhaps a tap dancer is accompanying your band in a fun, not-too-hard-but-not-too-easy rhythm that students will want to play every day.

I hope both you and your students have a blast with this song.
