

Allegro from the Flute Sonata

George Philipp Telemann
Arranged by David Marlatt

The numerous chamber works of Georg Philipp Telemann (1681-1767), which are often unjustly underestimated, are well worth listening to. He was a very popular composer in his day and wrote music for many genres from operatic works to solo keyboard. This work is the opening movement from the Flute Sonata in F Major (TWV 41:F2) and was part of a collection of works by Telemann and others.

The articulations have been added by the arranger. Feel free to change them but keep them consistent throughout.

The image displays a musical score for the song "The Rose Tree." It consists of four staves of music, numbered 1 through 4 on the left. The score is written in a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature (C). The music is divided into measures, with measure numbers 17, 18, 19, and 20 indicated at the top. A large, semi-transparent watermark reading "PREVIEW ONLY" is overlaid across the center of the image, spanning across all four staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines.
