

In Yourself Believe

3 part Treble Chorus, SAA with Piano & opt. Windchimes

Words and Music by TOM SHELTON

$\text{♩} = 105$ With remembered fondness

* Windchimes

Piano

mf

Reo. Reo. Reo.

6 All Voices (unison)

mp - mf

As I re - mem - ber days of old, — E - mo - tion word, a thought - ful deed — will lift the sing this song for you, — A sim - ple

6

mp - mf

Reo.

Reo.

10

floods my heart and warms my soul. — I move a - head, I won't look spi - rits of a world in need. — A sim - ple smile can dull the mess - age: to your - self be true. — Don't wait 'til life has passed you

10

Reo. simile

div.

Sop. only back, Re - gret is some - thing of the past. I have a pain of a tat - tered heart where hope re - mains. Be free to by, to al - low the world to come in - side. We walk this 13

16 Soprano

les - son I can share: Take time in life to show — that you laugh, let your-self cry, Wish on the bright-est star — in the jour - ney but one time, Make each step mat - ter, on your heart re -

Alto p - mp

Les - son to share, Show — that you Let your - self cry, Bright - est in the Jour - ney one time. On — your heart re -

16

19 3rd time to Coda ☼

care. Time mar - ches on — our mo - ments dis - ap - pear.
 sky. Em - brace the beau - ty that each day will bring.
 ly. Our time is short, — o - pen your heart and

div.

care. Time just — dis - ap - pear.
 sky. Beau - ty each day will bring.
 ly. O - pen your heart and 19 3rd time to Coda ☼

23 accel. $\text{♩} = 96$ mf - f

Who knows where — the road will lead?

23 accel. $\text{♩} = 96$ mf - f

Who knows where — the road will lead?