

The Bird's Song

2-part, Treble (or Mixed) Voices, with Piano and Flute (or Other C Instrument)*

Text by an unknown child in a Czechoslovakian death camp

Music by HENRY HINNANT

Unhurried (♩ = 96)

Flute

Voices

Piano

Unhurried (♩ = 96)

unis. mf

He

does - n't know the world at all, who stays in his nest and does-n't go out. He does - n't know what birds do best nor what I sing a - bout... that the

* A separate Flute (or other C Instrument) part is found on the last page.

13

f

world is full of love-li-ness, when dew-drops spar-kle in the grass, and 17

earth is a-flood with morn-ing light, a black-bird sings to greet the dawn of 21

mf

morn-ing af-ter night. Then I know how fine it