The musical score consists of ten staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The tempo is marked 'Allegro giusto' with a metronome range of 116-136. The music is written in a single melodic line. The first staff contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, some with slurs and accents. The second staff continues with similar rhythmic patterns, including some triplet-like figures. The third and fourth staves show more complex rhythmic structures with frequent slurs. The fifth and sixth staves feature a more regular eighth-note pattern with occasional slurs. The seventh and eighth staves introduce longer slurs over groups of notes, with accents placed on specific notes. The ninth and tenth staves conclude the piece with a final flourish of notes and slurs.
